

AUG 12 1961

Approved For Release 1999/09/08 : CIA-RDP75-0000

FOIAb3b

J. L. Buckley Served Here In CIA Post

CPYRGHT

James Leroy Buckley, 53, a Central Intelligence Agency employee, died Thursday at his home 3007 Laurel ave., Cheverly, Md., after a brief illness.

Mr. Buckley was born in Pittston, Pa., and was educated at the McKinley Technical High School, Bladensburg High School and at Catholic University.

Mr. Buckley

He was a Naval Gun Factory employee from 1941 to 1946, and worked with the Bureau of Ordnance of the Navy Department from 1946 to 1958. In 1958 he joined CIA.

Mr. Buckley was a charter member of York Lodge, A.F. of M., and was active for many years in the Cheverly Community Church. He also worked with the Boy Scouts, the Boys' Club, and the Swimming Club, all at Cheverly.

He leaves his wife, Mildred; five sons, Lt. James R. Buckley, of East Greenwich, R. I.; Robert D. of Vienna, Va.; Jay L., David M., and Bruce A. of the home address; and a daughter, Linda L., also of the home address.